STUART TOWN RACECOURSE TRUST

Community members have today been appointed to the trust that manages Stuart Town Racecourse near Wellington.

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, today welcomed Ben Eade to the trust’s board.

“I also congratulate William Eade, Leslie and Ronald Frappell, and Russell Frazer on their re-appointments,” the Minister said.

“The Government is very grateful for the efforts of trust members who help manage some of the 33,000 Crown reserves across NSW.

“Around 750 reserves are looked after by community volunteers who help care for valuable local infrastructure such as public halls, parks and reserves, swimming pools and smaller sportsgrounds.”

Country Labor MLC for Orange, Amanda Fazio, said the NSW Government is working hard to protect important community assets and encouraging people to use them, backed by the skills, experience and enthusiasm of trust members.

“Our new trust members are eligible for the annual Lands Crown Reserve Trust Award which recognises the important work they do for the community,” Ms Fazio said.
