LOCAL COMMUNITY MEMBERS REAPPOINTED TO GLENREAGH PUBLIC RECREATION RESERVE TRUST

NSW State Plan Priority E8: More people using parks, sporting and recreational facilities, and participating in the arts and cultural activity

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, today announced the appointment of community members to manage sporting fields at Glenreagh near Grafton.

“I congratulate Robert Slingsby, Matthew Higgins and Melinda Allamby as new members and Andrew McPherson, Sharon Kinnear, Michelle Irwin and Peter Dickson-Smith on their re-appointment to the Glenreagh Public Recreation Reserve Trust,” Mr Kelly said.

“The recreation area, located south of Grafton, has a sports ground and other recreation facilities that are used for sporting events and the monthly Glenreagh markets.

“The Rees Government is very grateful for the efforts of all the trust members who help manage some of the 33,000 Crown reserves across NSW.

“Around 750 reserves are looked after by community volunteers, who help care for valuable local infrastructure such as public halls, parks and reserves, swimming pools and smaller sportsgrounds.

“Backed by the skills, experience and enthusiasm of trust members, the NSW Government is working hard to protect important community assets and encouraging people to use them.

“I encourage people to seriously consider getting involved with their local trust.

“Trust members are also eligible for the annual Lands Crown Reserve Trust Award which recognises the important work trust members do for the community.”
