BELMONT WETLANDS STATE PARK TRUST

An additional community member has been appointed to the trust managing Belmont Wetlands State Park, located between Redhead and Belmont.

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, today congratulated Graham Clarke on his re-appointment to the reserve trust board.

"Graham was member of the State Park Trust's inaugural board and I welcome him back," the Minister said.

“The Government is very grateful for the efforts of trust members who help manage some of the 33,000 Crown reserves across NSW.

“Around 750 reserves are looked after by community volunteers who help care for valuable local infrastructure such as public halls, parks and reserves, swimming pools and smaller sportsgrounds.

“Backed by the skills, experience and enthusiasm of trust members, the NSW Government is working hard to protect important community assets and encouraging people to use them.

“Our new trust members are eligible for the annual Lands Crown Reserve Trust Award which recognises the important work they do for the community.”
