SAVERNAKE SCHOOL OF ARTS RESERVE TRUST

Community members have been appointed to the trust managing the Savernake School of Arts Reserve Trust, 20 kilometres north of Mulwala.

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, congratulated Kenneth Bruce, Sharon Fisher, Christine Gorman, Andrea Mitchell, William Nixon, Hugh Smith and Ann Sloane on their appointments to the reserve trust board.

The appointments will be formalised shortly by publication of a notice in the Government Gazette.

“The Government is very grateful for the efforts of trust members who help manage some of the 33,000 Crown reserves across NSW,” the Minister said.

“Around 750 reserves are looked after by community volunteers who help care for valuable local infrastructure such as public halls, parks and reserves, swimming pools and smaller sportsgrounds.

“Backed by the skills, experience and enthusiasm of trust members, the NSW Government is working hard to protect important community assets and encouraging people to use them.”

Duty MLC for Albury, Tony Catanzariti, welcomed the appointments.

“The community of Savernake and its surrounding area utilise the Crown land for community meetings and functions,” Mr Catanzariti said.

“Our new trust members are eligible for the annual Lands Crown Reserve Trust Award which recognises the important work they do for the community.”
