PIRAMMA PARK NAME ECHOES EARLY HISTORY

Residents are encouraged to have their say on the proposed naming of a reserve in the Sydney local government area.

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, said the City of Sydney Council has proposed the name Pirrama Park for a harbourside reserve located in Pirrama Road, Pyrmont.

“Pirrama is the original Aboriginal name for Pyrmont Peninsula as documented by naval officers in the First Fleet and recorded on early maps and journals,” the Minister said.

“Residents can provide comment up until Friday, 4 June.”

Submissions can be lodged on the Geographical Names Board’s web site at www.gnb.nsw.gov.au or by writing to the Geographical Names Board, Land and Property Information, 346 Panorama Ave, Bathurst NSW 2795.
