MANCHESTER SQUARE TO MAKE A COMEBACK

People are being encouraged to comment on a proposal to reinstate the address locality status of Manchester Square in the Wingecarribee council area.

NSW Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, said Wingecarribee Shire Council’s address localities were determined in December 2009 at which time Manchester Square was reassigned as an historic area.

“But after further community consultation, council decided Manchester Square should be an address locality, as it had been previously,” the Minister said.

The Geographical Names Board is now seeking public comment up until Friday, March 11, before approving council’s proposal.
